

The Impact of Covid-19 on Children

1

In 10 years, will we be confident we did everything we could for our children during this crisis?

2

Children generally only ask for what's fair and just.

3

We need to actively listen to and hear our children.

4

Children need to be at the heart of, and actively involved in, schools' decision making.

5

We need to carefully consider our childrens' relationship with technology after Covid-19.

For more information or help and support, visit:
iamheretribe.com

I Am
Here